Meet Coco

Coco is a charismatic, charming, entertaining creative chef who loves to bake and create meals. It was her recipe that got her on the Today Show during Al Roker's segment!

Her high energy and lovable personality has opened the door for many opportunities that most can only dream of. She has been on multiple BuzzFeed/Tasty videos that got millions of views. She has been on The Jason Show, Twin Cities Live, Fox 9 The Buzz, Fox Soul, KARE 11, KSTP, and WCCO all multiple times.

Coco is highly respected among celebrities alike. She frequents red carpets and many private celebrity events. She is the go to for all things plant based.

As a radio personality she is doing the damn thing hosting the HOTTEST plant based radio show in the country.

Coco would love to collab and partner with companies who's missions line up with hers.

Coco plans to bring forth a plant based cookbook, cookware line, fragrance line and multiple tv shows!
